Re: MURs 4407 and 4544

Dear Mr. Roessner:

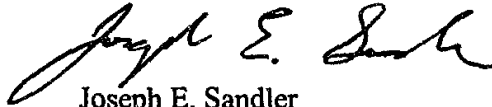

Enclosed are copies of the "Joe Sandler generic media notebooks," which are being produced by our client, respondent DNC Services Corporation/Democratic National Committee ("DNC"), in response to the Subpoena served on the DNC in the above-referenced MURs. As confirmed in your letter of July 21, 1998, we have agreed to produce these documents notwithstanding the "Agreement to Stay Discovery and to Toll the Limitations Period for Commencing a Civil Action" executed by counsel for the Commission, Clinton/Gore '96 and the DNC in connection with these MURs.

Certain documents have been withheld from this production because we believe they may be subject to attorney-client privilege and/or the work product doctrine. After we complete our review of these documents, we will either produce them to you, in the event we determine that they are not privileged, or provide a privilege log with respect to these documents.

The DNC regards certain of the enclosed documents as confidential business information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act ("FOIA"). We understand that all of these documents will remain confidential during the pendency of this enforcement proceeding pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g. The DNC reserves the right to identify the specific documents that it claims are exempt from disclosure under FOIA at such time as the DNC is notified of the Commission's intention to close the MUR(s) and make the file public, and to request at that time that such specific documents remain confidential.

If you have any questions concerning this production of documents, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Joseph E. Sandler
Attorney for Respondents DNC Services
Corporation/Democratic National Committee and Carol Pensky, as Treasurer
